

7. If you feel that you have an interest which, if disclosed on a public register, could lead to yourself or a person connected to you being subject to violence or intimidation, then you must still disclose the interest on this form, but highlight it as a Sensitive Interest. Your parish clerk will then refer your form to the Monitoring Officer who will contact you to discuss whether the interest should be withheld from the register viewable on the website and the publicly available register.

Definitions

8. In this register:

“body in which I or my spouse/civil partner have a beneficial interest” means a firm in which you or your spouse/civil partner are a partner or a body corporate of which you or your spouse/civil partner are a director, or in the securities of which you or your spouse/civil partner have a beneficial interest;

“co-opted member” means a person who is not a member of the authority but who

(a) is a member of any committee or sub-committee of the authority, or

(b) is a member of, and represents the authority on, any joint committee or joint sub-committee of the authority;

and who is entitled to vote on any question that falls to be decided at any meeting of that committee or sub-committee;

“director” includes a member of the committee of management of an industrial and provident society;

“land” includes an easement, servitude, interest or right in or over land which does not carry with it a right for you, your spouse or civil partner (alone or jointly with another) to occupy the land or to receive income;

“securities” means shares, debentures, debenture stock, loan stock, bonds, units of a collective investment scheme within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 and other securities of any description, other than money deposited with a building society.
